

P8. Special Events (“How Psychotherapy Works,” Bollas, Panksepp, etc.)

How do you use? / Comments / Suggestions

- This is my most attended event. I really like the question [How Psychotherapy Works] and the people this event draws
- I like the continuing dialogue about this topic
- especially value the cross-fertilization of different disciplines and approaches that can still inform psychoanalytic work
- I attend annually – Provides an opportunity to learn from presenters who wouldn't otherwise appear in the Puget Sound area
- I attend many of these offerings – you bring in excellent presenters
- The outside speakers who come are usually excellent. They keep Seattle on the map & keep us in touch with the rest of the world
- I think the Alliance has generally gotten good speakers who appeal to a wide audience
- Excellent speakers; I can always count on something interesting.
- Excellent offerings – keep up the good work
- Those I attended were high quality
- Wonderful learning experiences
- Very appreciative of the quality of the presenters & the focus of the talks
- Irreplaceably valuable – I count on this event for leading edge thought
- Very useful trainings

- Excellent folks invited
- I attended Bollas & Panksepp
- Panksepp was terrifically interesting
- The presenters have been fairly consistently interesting, esp. Panksepp – I have learned a lot
- Some events are terrific – Bollas
- Samuels, Alderdice lectures – [I'm] very interested in political psychology

- Great series
- Great! More of these
- Love these!
- Fantastic
- Great!!
- Great, quality presentations – Thank you!

- I am very glad to have these events offered, even when I am unable to attend
- Has conflicted with my schedule but is a great idea
- I haven't been able to attend but want to and would like to see these continue
- Depends on the topic and my availability
- High value, except I cannot attend because of cost
- I go when there is topic or presenter that interests me

Additional feedback from open-ended questions

- Q4. More Special Events

