

The Forum is published three times a year and is open to receive articles of psychoanalytic interest from Alliance members. Each issue of the Forum has a designated topic and Alliance members are welcome to contribute a variety of writing styles relevant or free associatively related to the topic, such as brief essays, poems, stories, or scholarly articles. The upcoming topics are:

September 2011: witness – deadline: July 1, 2011

January 2012: threshold – deadline: November 1, 2011

May 2012: space – deadline: March 1, 2012

September 2012: voice – deadline: July 1, 2012

In addition to writing on the topic, we welcome additional writing of psychoanalytic interest including articles, book or conference reviews and letters to the local psychoanalytic community. If you have a question about whether writing you'd like to submit will be published, contact Kris Wheeler or someone on the committee.

All submissions should be sent to Kris Wheeler, kris@kriswheeler.com
